Seven from seven in the SLB, and straight back from a EuroCup win on Wednesday, the Lions host Sheffield Sharks at New City College Hackney tonight. The Sharks sit seventh on two wins from four.

London come into the night with momentum in both competitions: a 79–61 win over Türk Telekom Ankara in midweek and an 82–76 win over Bristol on Saturday.

Form 7–0 in the SLB, 3–2 in Europe

Wednesday's EuroCup win was a game of two halves. The sides were level at 39–39 at the break, then the Lions outscored Türk Telekom 40–22 after it. Head coach Tautvydas Sabonis said: "At half-time, they understood the message. They levelled up their physicality and energy and executed the game plan to a tee."

Joel Scott was the star, with 21 points and 13 rebounds, and basketballsphere.com named him its MVP of the round. Tarik Phillip added 15 points and five assists.

On Saturday the Lions led by 16 in the third quarter against Bristol before the Flyers closed to a three-point game, and London held on 82–76. Deane Williams led the scoring with 17. Sabonis wanted more: "We've got to understand that we need to go 40 minutes, possession after possession, and finish out games."
