Five wins from five across the SLB and EuroCup, and now a trip to Italy. The Lions are second in EuroCup Group B on 3–2 and visit Maxima Roma, who sit sixth on 2–3 and come off a five-point defeat in Lithuania.

A win in Rome would keep the Lions close to Group B's leaders, La Laguna Tenerife.

Form five wins on the bounce

The Lions' week was Wednesday and Friday at home. Against Türk Telekom Ankara in the EuroCup it was level at 39–39 at the break, then London outscored the visitors 40–22 in the second half to win 79–61. "At half-time, they understood the message," said head coach Tautvydas Sabonis. "They levelled up their physicality and energy and executed the game plan to a tee."

Two days later it went the other way. Sheffield led 31–15 after the first quarter at New City College Hackney, yet the Lions came back to win 85–76 and move to 8–0 in the SLB. Sabonis said the problem was the opening quarter: "The second, third, and fourth quarter we played our basketball, the problem was our first quarter."

Before that came a 82–76 win over Bristol and an 89–72 win at U-BT Cluj-Napoca, with an 87–83 win at Cheshire Phoenix before it.

Injury and availability

Nothing is reported on the Lions this week. For Roma, a preview published on Saturday said Matt Ryan was a concern after missing the Siauliai game with a foot injury, with no confirmed return date. Aaron Holiday and Gora Camara both came back against Siauliai.

Maxima Roma sixth, 2–3

Roma have a win over Reyer Venice, 90–79, and a heavy one over Cluj, 89–55, but lost at Tenerife 96–71 and at Ankara 92–77. Last Wednesday Siauliai won 98–93, with Siauliai hitting 17 three-pointers according to one preview.

Matteo Cotelli's team opened their Serie A season with two defeats and have since won three in a row, including 81–75 against Udine on Sunday. The same preview put them second in three-point percentage in the league after four rounds at 40.4%, but among the weakest rebounding sides.

Xavier Moon
Season: 10.5 pts, 3.0 reb, 6.2 ast, 23 min

Their assist leader on 6.2 a game, with 10.5 points. Led Roma with 14 against Udine.

Miro Bilan
Season: 13.2 pts, 6.0 reb, 1.6 ast, 23 min

The top scorer and rebounder at 13.2 points and 6 rebounds a game. Contributed 13 against Siauliai.

Brynton Lemar
Season: 10.8 pts, 2.4 reb, 2.8 ast, 21 min

Averages 10.8 points. Scored 19 in the loss to Siauliai.

Aaron Holiday
Season: 9.5 pts, 1.2 reb, 4.8 ast, 22 min

Averages 9.5 points and 4.8 assists. Scored 16 against Siauliai in his return to action.

Carl Wheatle
Season: 4.6 pts, 5.0 reb, 1.0 ast, 20 min

Pulls down 5 rebounds a game and averages 4.6 points. Scored 13 against Udine.

Club news

The Lions' pre-season game at the Portland Trail Blazers, a 119–66 loss, made them the first British club to play an NBA side, the North East Londoner reports. President Lenz Balan said: "Some other NBA teams have reached out about doing some more pre-season games and if we do it again we will try to get the best viewing experience for people here."

Euroleague Basketball lists a NextGen game, U18 Vienna Basketball against U18 London Lions, for 28 November.

What's next

Back home on Friday against Leicester Riders in the SLB, at New City College Hackney, then Reyer Venice at the Copper Box on 10 November in the EuroCup.
