Saturday 24 October 2026, SLB Championship

London Lions v Bristol Flyers

18:00

New City College, Hackney, Falkirk Street, London N1 6HQ

Venue change: this game is at New City College, Hackney, not the Copper Box. Falkirk Street, London N1 6HQ.

Nearest: Hoxton (Overground), 5 minutes on foot. Buses 67, 149, 242, 243 stop on Kingsland Road. Demo only: the real game is at the Copper Box.

Six from six in the league and back from Romania, the Lions host the one side that has come within two of them. Bristol sit second, have won four of their last five, and lost to London by two in September on a missed open jumper.

Form 6–0 in the SLB, 2–2 in Europe

Four games in ten days end on Saturday. The Lions beat Cheshire 87–83 on Sunday with a 10–0 run to close the first half and Joel Scott's free throws with 13 seconds left, then held U-BT Cluj to 72 points on Wednesday after a 40–37 half-time lead. "Our defence, 72 points is crazy," said head coach Tautvydas Sabonis.

Lions roster and who to watch

Thomas Kennedy

11.5 pts, 4.7 reb, 60.9% from the field

Leads the Lions in scoring and has not taken a three. Went 7 of 7 inside at Cluj on Wednesday.

Joel Scott

10.4 pts, 4.8 reb in 22 minutes

Scored the late baskets and both closing free throws at Cheshire; 15 points and five rebounds at Cluj.

Landrius Horton

9.8 pts, 43.5% from three on 23 attempts

Led the Lions with 16 at Bristol in September, including the three that tied the game late. 4 of 5 from deep at Cheshire.

Devante Jones

9.4 pts, 3.6 ast, 90% from the line

Converted both free throws with 18.8 seconds left to beat Bristol in September.

Bristol Flyers second, 4–2

Andreas Kapoulas's side have won four of five in the league since losing here, including 90–89 over Liverpool last Sunday when Davion Bailey's left-handed lay-in with 16 seconds left stood up after two missed free throws at the other end. In between they went to Germany in the ENBL and lost 106–84 at Syntainics MBC. They have had six days off; the Lions have had three.

They shoot threes, nearly 30 a game: Bailey takes more than seven, Zach Anderson more than six, and Diggins and Jennings nearly five each. Holden runs the offence and rebounds like a forward, but gives the ball away 3.3 times a game.

Davion Bailey

18.3 pts, 7.3 three-point attempts a game

The Flyers' scorer. 17 points, six assists and three steals against Liverpool last Sunday. Missed the open jumper that would have beaten London in September.

Michael Diggins Jr

12.2 pts, 5.5 reb, 2.0 blocks

The 2.07 m forward who protects the rim and takes nearly five threes a game.

Cameron Holden

9.2 pts, 6.5 reb, 4.5 ast

The point guard. Leads the team in assists and rebounds but also averages 3.3 turnovers.

Matteus Case

10.0 pts in 14 minutes, 56.8% from the field

Scoring off the bench at a rate nobody else on either roster matches.

Things to watch

- Inside against outside. Kennedy and Scott score almost entirely at the rim; Bristol take nearly 30 threes a game. Whichever shot falls decides it.
- Bristol's turnovers. Holden averages 3.3 and Jennings 2.2. Five Lions average more than a steal a game, and London took the ball off Cluj on an inbound on Wednesday.
- The free-throw line. September was decided there. Jones is 9 of 10 this season, Evans 18 of 21; Tarik Phillip is 5 of 14.
- Legs. London played in Romania on Wednesday. Bristol last played on Sunday.
